The Full-Time Faculty Handbook is a guide to the life of a college professor. Editors Virginia Bianco-Mathis and Neal Chalofsky examine the major components of a life in the academy-teaching, advising, publishing, research and service. Practical, comprehensive, and engaging, this handy guide appeals to a broad audience across all academic disciplines-from new professors to tenured faculty. Themes that are introduced and woven throughout the book include: + The basics of academic life + Key strategies for success + Political realities vs. the "ideal" + Managing your career-creating your own schedule, roadmap, and network + Assessing where you are and what needs to be done + Finding, fueling, and maintaining your passion The authors also address the latest trends in the field that are affecting time-honored teaching traditions, such as distance learning, outcome assessment, continuous learning, and the evolving roles and responsibilities of full-time faculty. An RAF bomber in the Second World War, shot down over the Bay of Biscay, Brian Hales has already had to overcome a crisis of conscience when his lover Ronnie ended their relationship and went to prison as a pacifist. The risks of attempted escape are his next hurdle, bringing him into conflict with his superior officers in the prisoner-of-war camp where he is eventually taken. But his most disturbing experience is still to come, when he finds himself falling in love with a young German guard. Lines may divide us, but hope will unite us. Nine year old Bruno knows nothing of the Final Solution and the Holocaust. He's oblivious to the appalling cruelties being inflicted on the people of Europe by his country. All he knows is that he has moved from Berlin to a desolate area where he has no one to play with. Until he meets Shmuel. Shmuel lives in a strange parallel existence on the other side of the adjoining wire fence, where everyone wears a uniform of striped pyjamas. Despite the wire fence separating them, the two boys become best friends. As they grow closer, Bruno starts to learn the terrible truth that lies beyond the fence, and what life is like for his friend. John Boyne's classic novel explores the friendship and loss of innocence of Bruno and Shmuel, during one of the worst points in history. Considers legislation to establish a national policy and program for assuring continuing full employment in a free competitive economy, through the concerted efforts of industry, agriculture, labor, state and local governments, and the Federal Government. An essayist, poet, freelance writer, and Minnesota Public Radio commentator, Susan Carol Hauser saw her approaching fiftieth birthday as an opportunity to reflect on where she had been, in order to better understand who she was at this milestone in her life. Each of her essays shares the wonder, experiences, and perceptions of life's cycles, of one year's turning - of a woman turning fifty. Barbara Van Arnam's magnificent paintings tap into the all-encompassing rhythms of life, eloquently echoing the essential harmony flowing through nature, and ourselves, as we continue on our path through life. Hauser's many peers in the baby-boomer generation will recognize their era on these pages, as they too conjure a new personal future. "Duncan Pattullo is thinking of re-marrying, although his former wife causes difficulties. His intended is also providing gossip for the college, but that is as nothing compared with Watershute, who abandons his family, conducts an affair in Venice, and is drunk at High Table. Things get very serious when he appears to be involved in treason"--Summary taken from later edition. Monograph proposing that existing welfare policies in the USA be succeeded by an incomes policy which would provide a guaranteed minimum family income without reducing employment incentives - considers the effect of income security on unemployment, and covers unemployment benefit, financing of welfare programmes, social protection, employment policies, employment opportunity, the minimum wage, employees attitudes, etc. Diagrams and references. This book turns current knowledge about how to bring about personal or interpersonal change upside down. Using conversational writing, Fregger presents his concepts on how the mind works, how stories work, and therefore, how change within the individual takes place. (Self-Help) This book examines both traditional and contemporary aboriginal societies in Canada reflecting the diversity of First Nation's voices. Through discussions of aboriginal languages, oral tradition, writers, and individuals, the content touches on several issues such as colonialism, education, health, justice and social action. Set in the future when "firemen" burn books forbidden by the totalitarian "brave new world" regime. This title describes the experience of a Chilean general as Deputy Force Commander of MINUSTAH (the peace mission force deployed in Haiti) during a particularly turbulent period in Haiti (September 2005 through September 2006), and what it is like to be in command of 7,500 men coming from 11 countries while trying to concentrate on accomplishing "A panoramic novel of New York State in the story of Hendrik Van Huyten and his attempt to sustain a little Holland in the midst of encroaching

America. He acquired a feudal domain -- a town grew up at his gates but he scarcely noticed it -- his children strayed from the paths he laid down for them, but only one escaped utterly. From him came a strain that paralleled and disturbed each succeeding generation, until the modern generation recognized in it a vitality the direct strain lacked, and found romance as well. It's grand reading, with a period of 150 years and many generations."--Kirkus
